ATTORNEY GENERAL

Mr. Miles K. Risley
Assistant City Attorney
City of Victoria
Legal Department
P.O. Box 1758

OR96-1403

Dear Mr. Risley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 32712.

The City of Victoria (the "city") received a request for "[a]ll reports associated with the brawl, robbery and vandalism" that occurred January 27, 1995. Although you state that the city has released information expressly made public by Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976), you claim that the remaining information is excepted from required public disclosure pursuant to section 552.103(a) of the Government Code.

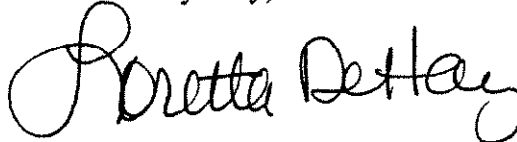

To secure the protection of section 552.103(a) a governmental entity must show that (1) litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.-Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 (1990) at 4. Under Open Records Decision No. 638 (1996), a governmental body may establish that litigation is reasonably anticipated by showing that (1) it has received a claim letter from an allegedly injured party or his attorney and (2) the governmental body states that the letter complies with the notice of claim provisions of the Texas Tort Claims Act ("TTCA") Civ. Prac. and Rem. Code § 101.

You have submitted to this office a copy of the claim form from the injured party. Because your request for a decision from this office was made prior the issuance of Open Records Decision No. 638 (1996), this office will assume that you are representing that the claim form you received satisfies the requirements of the TTCA or applicable municipal statute or ordinance. If this assumption is correct, you may withhold the requested documents.¹ We also note that if in the future you assert that section 552.103(a) is applicable on the basis of a notice of claim letter, you should affirmatively represent to this office that the letter complies with the requirements of TTCA.

We note that the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends if the other parties to the anticipated litigation obtain the information or when the litigation concludes. Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982) at 2; Open Records Decision Nos. 350 (1982) at 3, 349 (1982) at 2. We also note that since the section 552.103(a) exception is discretionary, Open Records Decision No. 542 (1992) at 4, the city may choose to release any information that is not otherwise confidential. Gov't Code § 552.007. Information that is confidential must be withheld even after the litigation has concluded. See Gov't Code § 552.352.

We are resolving this matter with an informal letter ruling rather than with a published open records decision. This ruling is limited to the particular records at issue under the fact presented to us in this request and should not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records. If you have questions about this ruling, please contact our office.

Yours very truly,

Loretta R. DeHay
Assistant Attorney General
